UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

I.A. No. 5/2016 in SLP(C) No. 4831/2012 for impleadment is allowed.

This Court in SLP(C) No. 28306/2017 and connected matters, keeping in view the order passed in Civil Appeal Nos. 4562-4564/2017 (The State of Tripura & Ors. vs. Jayanta Chakraborty & Ors.) and connected matters, referred the matters to the Constitution Bench. The Court on 15.11.2017 had passed a long order, the relevant part of which reads as follows:-

“Having heard learned counsel for the parties in the present case, we do not intend to get into the arena whether the two-Judge Bench could have directly referred the matter to a larger Bench under Article 145(3) of the Constitution of India, when there is already a decision by the Constitution Bench and, therefore, it is thought appropriate to constitute a Constitution Bench, only to examine the issue whether the decision in M. Nagaraj and others vs. Union of India and others (supra) requires reconsideration or not.

We may hasten to clarify that we have not expressed any opinion on the correctness of the said judgment. We are only passing this order, as there is an order passed by a two-Judge Bench of this Court to place the matter before a Constitution Bench. Learned counsel for the parties, though cited the authorities, yet very fairly stated that it can be heard by a Constitution Bench to be constituted by the Chief Justice of India.

Regard being had to the nature of the lis that has arisen, we think it appropriate to fix the time schedule for arguments. Mr. K.K. Venugopal, learned Attorney General for India accepts that his arguments shall not go beyond two hours. However, on our request, he accepted to finish his arguments within a span of one hour. All other learned counsel, supporting the stand of learned Attorney General, may conclude their arguments in 45 minutes. As far as the other side is concerned, they shall divide their arguments and also conclude the same within two hours. Learned counsel for the parties are requested to file their written submissions on the date the Constitution Bench assembles.

The matters be placed before the learned Chief Justice of India on the administrative side for constitution of a Constitution Bench on an appropriate date."

In view of the aforesaid, let the matters be listed alongwith SLP(C) No. 28306/2017 and batch, at 2.00 p.m. on 3.8.2018.

In the meantime, learned counsel for the parties shall exchange their written notes, focusing on the issues which would be required to be answered by the Constitution Bench, within 10 days hence. The same be filed before the Central Agency, which shall serve on the counsel for the other side. The name of the counsel, shall be mentioned in the written notes.

Let Diary No. 42413/2017 be tagged with the present batch of petitions.
